The Benavides Born Newsletter

Vol. 3

Sundance Film Festival:

The word is out! Benavides Born will premiere at the 2011 Sundance Film Festival this January! It was one of 16 films selected from over 1100 submitted to screen as part of the prestigious U.S. Dramatic Competition.

It is the best possible opportunity for the film's public introduction, and we are thrilled for, and thankful to, everyone involved!

Benavides Born would not have been possible without the support and contributions of so many -- the people of Benavides, San Diego, and Alice, the Texas High School Women's Powerlifting Association, The University of Texas at Austin, the Texas and Corpus Christi Film Commissions, and our wonderful cast and crew, just to name a few.

We'll be working hard over the next few months to get the film ready for its premiere. In the meantime, we have launched the film's website at www.benavidesborn.com and will soon launch its Facebook page!

Benavides Born will likely screen six times during the festival, and anyone thinking of going can find ticket information at www.sundance.org. We will keep you posted on the film's screening dates, locations, and other news. We also are certainly eager to screen the film somewhere near you and hope to provide that information in future newsletters!

Thank you again for your interest and support!
